

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO. 1:25-CR-20237-GAYLES

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

GORDON LOUIS,

Defendant.

PRETRIAL DETENTION ORDER

On June 11, 2025, the parties appeared before the Court for a hearing to determine whether Defendant Gordon Louis should be detained prior to trial under 18 U.S.C. § 3142, commonly known as the Bail Reform Act of 1984. Assistant United States Attorney Christopher Jones appeared on behalf of the Government. Attorney Sogol Ghomeshi appeared on behalf of Defendant, who was also present. Defendant indicated that he was able to understand what was being said to him throughout the hearing.

With the advice of counsel, Defendant knowingly and voluntarily waived his right to a bond hearing at this time and stipulated to pretrial detention, reserving the right to request a bond hearing in the future. Consequently, no bond hearing was held, no evidence was presented, no witnesses were called, and no bond was given. Having considered the Indictment, the Pretrial Services Report, and the factors enumerated in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g), the Court accepts Defendant's stipulation to detention.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that Defendant Gordon Louis be detained pending trial and until the conclusion thereof. This Order is without prejudice to Defendant seeking a bond hearing at a subsequent date. Defendant must be remanded to the custody of the United States Marshals. The Court directs that Defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver Defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Miami, Florida, this 12th day of June, 2025.
